Today's gospel is a challenging message for the people of Israel and for us. Jesus wanted to warn them about the necessity to bear fruits in the Christian life. As Chosen people, they were so blessed by God in many ways: God revealed to them his love, his presence. God gave them protection. He sent them prophets to proclaim the good news. In return, God expected from them fruits of the righteousness, justice, mercy and love. But the people refused to listen to the prophets and produced the bitter grapes of injustice, immorality and idolatry. They persecuted and killed the prophets. As a final attempt, God sent his Son who came to live among them. What blessing. But the wicked tenants, the people of Israel rejected Him. They crucified Him and continued to lead a life of disobedience. Hence, God's vineyard was taken away from Chosen people and was given to the gentile Christians, who were expected to produce fruit of righteousness. Now, the Lord's vineyard at present is the Church, and we Christians are the tenants from whom God expects fruits of righteousness. The parable warns us to reform our lives, to become productive. God has sent to us many prophets to encourage us, messengers to teach us how to love, how to be generous, how pray, how welcome the strangers, how to open our hearts to received God's grace. And in return, God expects us to be grateful for all the blessings we have received and also wants us to bear fruits of love, generosity, peace, justice. We need to ask ourselves are: Have we produced the good fruits of justice and love? Are we growing in spiritual life? Or do we consider ourselves as owners of the vineyard. How do we treat the messengers, friends, brothers and sisters, prophets, those who challenge us? Or are we ungrateful like the people of Israel when we show our cold indifference to God and excessive attachment to worldly goods. The prayer of our liturgy today is that we will receive the grace to open our hearts to the prophetic voice of Jesus and become a people who produce abundant good fruit in accord with God's will.

Thank You

Thank you for the cards and well wishes on priesthood Sunday.

We are blessed to be at Sts. Joseph & Paul.

St. Francis lived hundreds of years ago in Italy. He was very poor, but he was also very happy. He loved all of God's creation - some say he could even talk to animals!

San Francisco vivió hace cientos de años en Italia. Era muy pobre pero también era muy feliz. Amaba toda la Creación de Dios; algunos dicen que incluso podía hablar con los animales!

Verse of the Month/Versículo del Mes

Hebrews 11:1

Faith is the realization of what is hoped for and evidence of things not seen.

Hebreros 11:1

Tener fe es tener la plena seguridad de recibir lo que se espera; es estar convencidos de la realidad de cosas que nos vemos.

Family Storybook/libro de cuentos familiares

Think about how God brought your family together. How unique and special each member is and how God has had his hand on each one of your lives. In your family storybook, put your story in writing and add or draw pictures to help tell your story.

Piensa en cómo Dios unió a tu familia. Lo único y especial que es cada miembro y cómo Dios ha guiado la vida de cada uno de ustedes. En el libro de cuentos de tu familia, escribe tu historia y añade o dibuja imágenes para ayudar a contarla.

October Youth Bible Study

Monday Evening 6pm
Oct. 5th & 19th

For World Mission Day 2026, which marks the centenary of a celebration established by Pius XI that is very dear to the Church, I have chosen the theme "One in Christ, united in mission." Following the Jubilee Year, I wish to encourage the whole Church to continue its missionary journey with joy and zeal in the Holy Spirit. This requires hearts united in Christ, reconciled communities and, in everyone, a willingness to cooperate with generosity and trust.

As we reflect on being one in Christ and united in mission, let us allow ourselves to be guided and inspired by divine grace, "to renew in ourselves the fire of our missionary vocation" and advance together in the commitment to evangelization, in this "new missionary age" in the history of the Church (Homily, Jubilee of the Missionary World and of Migrants, 5 October 2025).

World Mission Sunday Collection will be October 18, 2026

There is an envelope in your collection envelope packet.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Almighty Father,
You have created for us some definite purpose.

Grant us the grace to know the path
You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes."

Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations.

May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal.

Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests.

Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life,
permanent deacons,
and faithful husbands and wives,
who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church.

We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father,
through the intercession of Mary our Mother,
in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

ONE IN CHRIST,
United in Mission

100 YEARS OF WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Oct 18th 2026

Prayer of Pope Leo XIV
for the 100th World Mission Sunday 2026

Holy Father, make us one in Christ, rooted in his love that unites and renews.
May all members of the Church be united in mission, docile to the Holy Spirit, courageous in bearing witness to the Gospel, proclaiming and daily embodying your faithful love for all creatures.

Bless all missionary men and women,
support them in their efforts, and watch
over them in hope!

Mary, Queen of Missions, accompany our work of evangelization in every corner of the earth: make us instruments of peace, and grant that the whole world may recognize in Christ the light that saves.

Amen.

“MARY, MOTHER OF LIFE”

Respect Life Reflection

When the angel Gabriel appeared to Mary to tell her that she would conceive and bear a son, Mary responded with her fiat, “May it be done to me according to your word” (Lk 1:38). Mary conceives Christ in her womb, becoming the mother of God, the mother of Jesus. Jesus himself tells us that he is “the way and the truth and the life” (Jn 14:6). In becoming the mother of Jesus, Mary becomes the mother of life. Mary’s acceptance in this unforeseen moment demonstrates how each of us must welcome the gift of new human life, even when that gift is unexpected or calls us to make sacrifices.

Eve was called the “mother of all the living” (Gen 3:20). Unfortunately, her disobedience brought sin into the world. In contrast Mary, through her obedience to God, gives birth to our Salvation. Mary becomes the New Eve—the new mother of all the living. Her fiat gives us an example of perfect docility and cooperation with the will of God.

At the Annunciation, when Mary learns that her elderly cousin Elizabeth is six months pregnant, she travels in haste to visit Elizabeth, spending the next three months at her side, even while pregnant herself. In her selfless service to Elizabeth, the Blessed Mother perfectly models how we are called to accompany expectant mothers as they prepare to welcome new life into the world.

Mary’s role as the Mother of Life extends from the Annunciation all the way to the Crucifixion. On Calvary, Mary stands at the foot of the Cross with Saint John. The Gospel tells us: “When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, ‘Woman, behold, your son.’ Then he said to the disciple, ‘Behold, your mother.’ And from that hour the disciple took her into his home” (Jn 19:26-27).

With his final breaths on the Cross, Jesus entrusts Mary and the Beloved Disciple to one another, and by extension establishes a maternal relationship between Mary and the Church. Jesus’ words are addressed not only to Saint John, but to each one of us. In this moment, the physical mother of Jesus becomes the spiritual mother of the Church and all the faithful. Saint John goes on to take Mary into his home and cares for her as she advances in age, demonstrating our responsibility to continue our care for human life, from conception to natural death. Mary, who taught us how to nurture human life, becomes the recipient of that same honor and care.

The life of the Blessed Mother teaches us to respect each human life in every stage and circumstance. Mary is our model for upholding the sanctity of all human life. O Mary, “Mother of the living, to you do we entrust the cause of life.”¹
