Holy Hour Thursday 7-8pm (Spanish)

But she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

Like the widow from Zarephath, who baked a cake for Elijah with the small amount of flour and oil she had left for herself and her son, the widow in the temple gave all that she had - her whole livelihood, to God. Such generosity springs from great faith in God's love for us and sincere gratitude. It is important that we regularly reflect on who we are and whose we are. At our Baptism we are called "a child of God, for so indeed we are." Do we acknowledge and accept God as Father and Creator? Are we grateful to God for all that He has given us? Is our gratitude to God reflected in our generosity like the widow of Zarephath and the widow in the temple? Jesus was not favorably impressed by large sums that the wealthy contributed out of their surplus wealth. How much of what we have is because of what we want, not what we need? How much of what we claim to be mine is actually surplus that we could share with others in need? How much do we give back to God out of all he has given to us?

What does it mean to live the Stewardship way of life?

The Stewardship way of life is a biblically based Catholic spirituality. Living each day as a good steward means answering our own personal call from Jesus Christ to be his disciple; following his example of loving service to others. In their Pastoral Letter "Stewardship: A Disciples Response", the US Bishops describe a Christian steward as: "One who receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible and accountable manner, shares them in justice and love with others, and returns them with increase to the Lord." Gifts from God are not meant to be hoarded or kept only for our own use, but to be shared with others so everyone has a share in God's abundant graces.

Thank you to those who have returned their 2024 Stewardship Form. If you haven't returned yours, please do so by November 10th.

There are additional forms available in church or in the Parish Office 38.2% have been returned as of 11/3/24.

Mystical Rose (Rosa Mystica)

For months, maybe years now, I have been praying for priesthood vocations when the image of the Mystical Rose came to me. The image of the Mystical Rose, now on display in the rear of the church, is my contribution to the Sts. Joseph and Paul community. I am asking you to join me in praying that many men and women hear Christ's call to the priesthood and religious vocations.

Thank you for "consecrating yourselves to the Lord, for tomorrow He will do wonders among you". Joshua 3:5

The feast day for the Mystical Rose is celebrated annually on July 13th.
