Message From Fr. Kalombo

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

The parable of the five wise virgins who brought extra oil and the five unwise who did not seems to suggest that Jesus was a Boy Scout and was well aware of their motto, "Be Prepared." It is more likely that the Boy Scouts were aware of that parable, and others, and based their motto on the teaching of Jesus. People who live in areas prone to hurricanes, earthquakes, tornados, blizzards and other climate or geology related events know the value of being prepared. Jesus clearly meant that being prepared involved more than having an extra vile of oil for a lamp or the right supplies and equipment in the event of an emergency. He intended that we should live our life always prepared to grow in the understanding and use of all the talents, abilities and gifts God has given to each of us, to the best of our ability, for ourselves and for others. That is truly "being prepared," especially the part about using all that God has given us for others.

"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another." — 1 Peter 4:10

I shall pass through this world but once.
Any good therefore that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being let me do it now.
Let me not defer or neglect it,
For I shall not pass this way again.

Living the Word
for families

In this weeks Gospel we hear about the wise and foolish virgins. Have you ever prepared for someone to visit your home? What are some things your family does to prepare?
This week light a candle in a dark room to see how light affects the dark. what do you notice? How is the light helpful? Talk about ways you can keep the light of goodness brignt in your family so that your hearts are prepared for the coming of Jesus.

En el Evangelio de esta semana escuchamos sobre las vírgenes prudentes y las insensatas. ¿Alguna vez te has preparado para recibir una visita en casa? ¿Qué hace tu familia para prepararse?
Esta semana, enciende una vela en una habitación oscura para ver cómo la luz afecta a la oscuridad. ¿Qué observas? ¿De qué manera ayuda la luz? Hablen sobre cómo pueden mantener viva la luz de la bondad en su familia para que sus corazones estén preparados para la venida de Jesús.

Come embark on an intentional pilgrimage as we encounter Christ through our own life's journey, the life of St. Francis of Assisi, and the parish of St. Francis of Assisi in celebration of the 800th anniversary of his passing into eternal life this special jubilee year.

Each moment/encounter of our earthly pilgrimage can open us to a deeper awareness of Christ and the Holy Spirit's presence in creation, others, and self. Come slow down, reflect, and experience a formational transformation.
