“Behold

THE LAMB OF GOD, WHO TAKES AWAY THE SINS OF THE WORLD.”

THE SEASON OF ADVENT, 2024

“Whoever has two cloaks should share with the person who has none . . .”

The crowds asked John the Baptist, “What should we do?” When he told them to give one of their two cloaks to someone who had none, they probably decided not to ask him any more questions because “He may tell us that if we see two people without cloaks we should give them both of our cloaks, and trust that the Lord God will supply our needs.” John was challenging them, and us, to acknowledge that everything we are and have was created by God and belongs to God, who intends for us to use it and enjoy it for ourselves and for others. John understood gratitude to God is the heart of generosity to others. In God’s magnificent plan we can become the vehicle that He uses to give to others. We give to others by giving of ourselves. One of our most precious gifts from God is our time. Whatever our length of days, how we choose to use our time for ourselves and others is our gift to God. It is a gift we can give to Jesus in celebration of His Birthday.

Thank You!

Thank you to our Cooking Team for the delicious hams & turkey breast they cooked for Thanksgiving.

Pictured above: Participants in the Owensboro Diocese Youth Conference. Thank you to our chaperones: Deacon Chris Gutierrez, Yuli Soto, Gustavo Gonzalez.

The women’s group from Christ Renews His Parish participated in a Marian consecration and attended Mass on the Feast of Immaculate Conception.

33 DAYS to EUCHARISTIC GLORY

SAVE THE DATE

At all Christmas Masses, each family will receive 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory, by Matthew Kelly. This isn't just another book. It is an invitation to participate in a sacred journey - a spiritual pilgrimage. 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory is a guide that will lead you to the essence of what it means to be Catholic. Beginning 12/29/24, those who are interested may participate in weekly small group sessions from 9:00AM-9:45AM (between Masses in the Parish Hall) in preparation for Eucharistic Consecration on 2/2/25.

Christmas Flower Collection

If you would like to make a donation in memory of your loved one to help purchase Christmas Flowers, you can use the Christmas Flower Envelope in your December envelope packet or you can use the pew envelopes. Thank you!
