THE SEASON OF ADVENT, 2024

Dear Parishioners and Friends, you may have noticed the decorations around your neighborhood have begun to appear. We saw some decorations going up already during our vacation, before Thanksgiving! For many people Christmas is a time for adorning the house and decorating the carefully selected tree with the symbols that are associated with Advent. Those traditions are ok, as long as we maintain our focus on the One who is the reason for the season.

The question is: How do you prepare you heart for the birthday celebration of Jesus and his second coming?

The liturgical color violet reminds us that Advent is a penitential season. One of our Advent prayers urges us to remove those things that hinder us from receiving Christ with joy. What better way to respond to this Advent prayer than to make a good confession. Advent is a time to go to confession..... please find time in your busy schedules to make the most of this opportunity.

I wish you all have a Blessed Advent preparation for Christmas.
Fr. Kalombo

“Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.”

On this Second Sunday of Advent we hear a message about John the Baptist proclaiming a “baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah.” Why, three Sundays before we celebrate the Incarnation of the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity as the Son of God and the Son of Mary, are we hearing about John the Baptist? John was preparing the people of his day for the message and the mission of Jesus. The birth of Jesus is an event to celebrate, but the significance of the life, message and mission of Jesus seems to be lost in the commercialization and chaos of Christmas. To truly understand the message of Jesus and commit ourselves to carry out his mission we must live the obligations of our Baptism. Our gift for Jesus should be to do all we can to prepare the way of the Lord and make straight his path - to our heart. We do not need to shop for such a gift. It is in our heart.

During Advent we begin to prepare for the birth of Jesus it is a bit strange to be reading about Jesus preparing his disciples for the Passion he knew was coming because his was a threat to the Jewish leaders and Roman authorities. But to fully appreciate and celebrate the Incarnation and Birth of God Made Man we must reflect upon the reason God became Man and the consequences he would endure to fulfill such a total act of love. Jesus is warning his disciples that his life and teaching would be a challenge to many and a threat to the powerful. He anticipated that his disciples would be tempted to abandon him when people rejected Him and took steps to silence Him. So, as we buy all the presents, trim the trees, string the lights, prepare the food and drinks, decorate for the parties, lets us also take time to reflect upon the real reason Jesus came into the world. He came to teach us, by word and example, to love God, and our neighbor as ourselves. Let that be our gift to Jesus and let us never get caught without it "by surprise like a trap."

33 DAYS to EUCHARISTIC GLORY

SAVE THE DATE

At all Christmas Masses, each family will receive 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory, by Matthew Kelly. This isn't just another book. It is an invitation to participate in a sacred journey - a spiritual pilgrimage. 33 Days to Eucharistic Glory is a guide that will lead you to the essence of what it means to be Catholic. Beginning 12/29/24, those who are interested may participate in weekly small group sessions from 9:00AM-9:45AM (between Masses in the Parish Hall) in preparation for Eucharistic Consecration on 2/2/25.

Santa Shop

In partnership with local elementary schools we will be hosting a Santa Shop for some local families in need. At our Santa Shop, each family member will be able to shop for each other and purchase NEW gifts for only 10¢ or 25¢. This will take the place of our giving tree.

If you are out shopping and find a good deal on NEW items for children, teens, or adults, please consider picking up a few gifts for the Santa Shop! You may drop them off (with price tag still attached if possible) at the church or church office. If you prefer to make a monetary donation instead of shopping, place your gift in the collection basket in an envelope marked "Santa Shop". We are also in need of Christmas wrapping paper and gift bags.

Thank You!
