Holy Hour Thursday 7-8pm (Spanish)

“For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you?”

Is there someone you really don't like? Or is there someone you feel you hate. Hopefully you have come to realize that such feelings about people are because of something we believe they did to us, or something they should have done for us, but didn't. We may waste a lot of time thinking about how we will retaliate. Or we may actually retaliate in some way. But that may lead to serious physical or legal consequences. Ultimately, the time we spend with feelings of dislike or hatred, or the actions we take, do more harm to us than to the other person. That is why Jesus taught his disciples, and through them, taught us, to “love your enemies and do good to them.” Jesus knew there would be people that, for some reason or another, we would not like. Jesus was critical of the Chief Priest, Sadducees, Pharisees and the scribes. He loved them enough to challenge them to change. That's the kind of love he wants us to have for everyone, including our enemies. It is not easy, but that is what Jesus did and what he challenges us to do

The Ursuline Sisters’ prayers are a source of strength year round

We could all use prayers. The Ursuline Sisters of Mount Saint Joseph (Maple Mount, Ky.) want everyone to know that they take your requests for prayers seriously. Prayer cards are completed and put in a basket in the Mount Saint Joseph Motherhouse Chapel and then prayed with throughout the year. The Sisters pray for the intentions during daily Mass, and some of the Sisters will take a stack of cards to sit and pray with. The Ursuline Sisters consider it an honor to be entrusted with these prayers. To submit a prayer request, visit ursulinesmsj.org and click on Prayer Requests.

A person is kneeling in prayer by a lake at sunset. The person's silhouette is dark against the bright, hazy light of the setting sun. Their hands are clasped in front of them. The background shows tall trees and a calm body of water reflecting the sky. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

Lord, I forgive _____.

Lord, I give you permission to take the judgment and bitterness out of my heart. I do not want this in my life. I surrender it to You and ask You to remove it – To heal me where I have been wounded, to forgive me where I have sinned. I choose not to blame or hold the actions of others against them. I hereby surrender my right to be paid back for my loss by the one who has sinned against me, and in so doing, I declare my trust in God alone and the Righteous Judge.

Father God, bless them in every way. In Jesus' name, Amen.
