MAY GOD BLESS YOUR NEW SCHOOL YEAR ABUNDANTLY!

As a new school year begins, Sts. Joseph and Paul extends its warmest blessings and prayers to all of our students, teachers, and administrators.

We are incredibly proud to announce that our parish is sponsoring 88 children from 47 families at Owensboro Catholic Schools! For those not attending Catholic Schools, our parish Faith Formation program is held on Sundays for all students (K-8). Registration for Faith Formation is going on now. Your commitment to providing a Christ-centered education for your children is a beautiful testament to our parish mission.

As your pastor, I, along with our entire parish team, stand ready to support, protect, and guide our families throughout the academic journey. Let us lift up our students in prayer, asking the Holy Spirit to grant them wisdom, safety, and a deep desire to grow closer to Christ. Have a blessed and successful school year!

Yours in Christ, Fr. Jean-Rene Kalombo

In today's gospel, we hear the story how the apostles were terrified because the storms. And when they saw Jesus walking on the water, they cried out in fear. "It is a ghost. At once Jesus spoke to them, 'Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid.' Be strong. It is a consoling message. This is the words we like to hear when we are in trouble. Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.'" He said, "Come." Indeed, Peter did the impossible. He started walking on the water as he was focusing on Jesus. But when he shifted his focus to the problems that surrounded him (troubled water and wind), he started sinking, then he cried out saying "Lord save me!" We are often like Peter. Often we face storms in our lives. There are many who are facing storms in their relationships, storms in their marriages, conflict in their work places, in their businesses, in their studies, in their plans and aspirations. It is important to note that storms are existential facts of life. When we choose to stay focused on Jesus and trust Him, He will come to our help. He does care. When we focus on Jesus, we keep connection with Him, we understand what happen to us. But notice that Jesus may not come when we want, or do what we want, but Jesus does care. He is powerful. He has the authority over everything even the storms.

And notice that sometimes Jesus does not remove the problems of life, but He shows up and walks with us through them. That is where trust and faith come in. Our life is built on Jesus and Him alone, not Jesus and something else. When we realize that all we need is Jesus we will trust Him. It will not matter if the storms rage, or the lightning flashes. All that will matter to us is that we have Jesus. No doubts in His ability, no questions about if this is the right course for our life, no wondering if Christ can. However, like Peter, when we focus on our problems, on our storms, or concerns we get distracted and we loose connection with the source of power, Jesus. My brothers and sisters, illness, storms, suffering.... are part of our human being. Jesus did not promise us easy life. No one is free of storms. Remember what He says: whoever wants to come after me, should deny himself, take up his cross and follow me. So, no matter what the projects we have or the job we do, or the storms we face we should focus on the source of life. We should not forget that Jesus is the most important. He is always there. Do not forget the voice of Jesus saying, take courage. It is I. Do not be afraid. No matter what the situation or projects, We should not forget why we are here, why we are Christians. No matter what storms we face, We must never allow the problems of this word to distract us to do God's will. This is the great message for today. Let us ask God to increase our faith.

After much prayer & careful consideration, we have made the difficult decision that, effective September 1, 2026, Sts. Joseph & Paul Catholic Church will no longer offer the Saturday 6pm Spanish Mass or the Sunday 6pm English Mass.

We are grateful to all who have worshipped with us at these Masses and sincerely appreciate your faithfulness and support. This decision was made only after thoughtful discernment and careful consideration of the pastoral needs of our parish community.

We invite everyone who regularly attends these Masses to join us at one of our other weekend Masses. We look forward to continuing to worship together as one parish family.

Thank you for your understanding, your prayers, and your continued commitment to our parish.

Saints Joseph And Paul Parish Income & Expenses 2025-26

July 1, 2026, marked the beginning of our new fiscal year.

We closed the 2025–2026 fiscal year with a regular collection deficit of $119,271.70. As part of our ongoing efforts to be good stewards of the resources entrusted to us, the 2026–2027 regular collection budget has been reduced by $115,000. Even with this reduction, we will still need an additional $31,000 in revenue to meet our budgeted operating expenses for the 2026–2027 fiscal year.

We sincerely thank you for your continued generosity and faithful support of our parish. Your stewardship makes our ministries and mission possible.
