January 14, 2024

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

He said to them, "Come, and you will see."

In the time of Jesus few people, called scribes, could read or write. The Torah and other books were rare. Students listened to teachers, called rabbis, not all of whom could read or write. Such rabbis were valued for their understanding of Scripture. They rarely, if ever, sent their students [disciples] to another rabbi. John knew that the scribes could read the law but Jesus understood the intent of the Lawgiver. John sent his disciples to Jesus, who asked "Where are you staying?" They were really asking, "What do you teach?" Jesus did not embark on a theological dissertation. He said, "Come, and you will see." John's disciples followed Jesus and learned from his life and teaching. They saw and believed. They tried to imitate Jesus. When they failed, they tried again. We have the benefit of Scripture and Tradition, and more than 2000 years of Christian models who risked much and sacrificed all to imitate Jesus. It is not too late in the new year to resolve to do our best to imitate Jesus. And if we fail, we can try again.

Palm For Ash Wednesday

Do you have blessed palm from last year's Palm Sunday and don't know what to do with it? We have baskets placed at all the doors of Church for palms. We will burn it and use the ashes for Ash Wednesday.

PRESENTATION OF THE LORD

Forty days after the birth of a child, the people of Israel presented the newborn to the temple. The gospels say that the parents of Jesus obeyed this law. In doing so, they revealed him as the fulfillment of the law. On February 2 at 5:30pm

we invite everyone to come and celebrate the Eucharist as we celebrate Christ's presentation in the Temple.

Traditionally on this day the Church has blessed candles, so we invite you to bring a candle from home to be blessed.

We will have blessing of throats after Masses the weekend of February 3 & 4
