“My sheep hear my voice;
I know them and they follow me.”

We can identify family and friends and many public figures by their voice. Jesus tells us that His followers hear His voice and that He knows them and they know him. But, do we listen for the voice of Jesus? Do we know the voice of Jesus? Do we hear the voice of Jesus in the needs and concerns of our family, our friends, and strangers - through the people and events in our lives. What do we do when we hear His voice telling us God’s will for us? Jesus challenges us to be and to do all that God created us to be and do; to love the unlovable people in our lives, to challenge the evil we see in our world, to take the risk of being rejected, ostracized and abused for standing up for the forgotten, oppressed and persecuted. If our first response may be “No!” we probably just heard the voice of Jesus. It is part of our human nature to resist loving the unlovable, to shy from a challenge, to avoid the risk of actions that may bring retaliation from others. Our second response might also be “No.” But our final response must be “Yes Lord!”

Please see bulletin insert for a 3rd quarter Year-to-Date Parish Income & Expense report.
Thank you for your continued generosity to our parish.

I will be on vacation beginning May 8th through June 8th. Please pray for my safe travel. I will keep you all in prayer and look forward to seeing you all when I return.
~Fr. Kalombo

Word of Life

“Suicidal individuals—with or without a terminal illness—typically do not want to die; they want to escape what they perceive to be an intolerable situation, and they inaccurately believe that suicide is their only way out. The patient requesting assisted suicide is often asking, ‘Does anyone want me to be alive, or care enough to talk me out of this request and support me through this difficult time?’”

USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, “Every Suicide is Tragic” uscbb.org/every-suicide-tragic

Palabra de Vida

“Las personas suicidas —con o sin enfermedades terminales— normalmente no quieren morir; quieren escaparse de lo que perciben como una situación intolerable, creyendo erróneamente que la muerte es su única salida. Una persona que solicita el suicidio asistido suele preguntarse: ‘¿Hay alguien que quiera que yo siga vivo, o que se preocupe tanto como para disuadirme y apoyarme en este difícil momento?’”
