Holy Hour Thursday 7-8pm (Spanish)

The rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and make their authority over them felt. But it shall not be so among you.

The disciples of Jesus were not immune to temptations for power and prestige. Despite all that Jesus had taught them, they still thought He had come to establish an earthly kingdom that would free them of the oppression of their Roman conquerors and Jewish leaders, particularly Herod, who was named King by Caesar, but was not a Jew. They had visions of “Doing unto others what had been done to them.” Jesus asked if they could do what he knew he had to do. They had no clue what he meant, but said, “Yes, we can.” Jesus does not condemn them for their human weakness of pride and envy, but he teaches them that their greatness will be determined, not by wealth, power and prestige, but by the way they serve others, by becoming a slave to all. That certainly is not what James and John, or any of the other disciples, had in mind. It would not be until Jesus rose from the dead and served them meals that they would begin to understand. We have their testimony in the Scripture that they understood. Do we understand?

Stewardship Sunday

October 27th

Stewardship Guidebooks & Forms were mailed this past week. Please return your Stewardship form to mass next Sunday, 10/27.

What is Stewardship?

Stewardship is about thanking God for all the gifts He gives us. It is a prayerful, planned, and proportionate giving of our time, talent, and treasure. We recognize that all we have ultimately comes from God, and we thank the Lord by returning to God some of what we have received.

The Three Aspects of Stewardship: Time, Talent, Treasure

TIME: Stewardship begins with taking care of and sharing the gift of time. Plan a careful schedule to include time for prayer and the sacraments. This is vital in the stewardship of our physical, emotional, spiritual, and intellectual lives.

TALENT: Our talents are special blessings from God. When we volunteer to help others by sharing our talents, we give something more precious than our time or our money.

TREASURE: Our treasures, both money and possessions, are gifts from God that we are asked to care for and generously share for our own benefit and for the benefit of others.

A Stewardship Way of Life Leads to Discipleship

The US Bishop’s Pastoral Letter of Stewardship invites all Catholics to invest themselves—time, talent, and treasure- in the mission and ministries of the Church. This invitation is a challenge for each of us to live a life of gratitude, accountability, and generosity. A stewardship way of life is a way that truly seeks to live as a disciple of Jesus.

Stewardship is based on a biblical view of God as Creator and ourselves as servants. From this perspective, we are encouraged to develop or renew the practice of regularly reflecting on God’s love for us and the goodness of our lives. With a sure sense of our blessings in mind, we are encouraged to make GRATITUDE the fundamental motive for our giving. The Bible also reminds us that as servants we are accountable to God for the use of our gifts of time, talent, and treasure—this is STEWARDSHIP.

As each one has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God’s varied grace.

Prayer for the United States

Lord God, I ask in all humility that you bless this country as unworthy as we are. Protect it from every evil. Protect it from the enemy. Protect it Lord that it may accomplish thy will and keep thy commandments. I ask you Lord, with a pleading heart, to look down upon us in our unworthiness. Give this country a renewal of devotion to you, to your law and to your commandments, Lord. Let us be once more a country under you Lord, may we once more say, "in God we trust." Guide us, and protect this country from every evil and every harm. Amen.

PRAY FOR AMERICA

Mystical Rose (Rosa Mystica)

For months, maybe years now, I have been praying for priesthood vocations when the image of the Mystical Rose came to me. The image of the Mystical Rose, now on display in the rear of the church, is my contribution to the Sts. Joseph and Paul community. I am asking you to join me in praying that many men and women hear Christ's call to the priesthood and religious vocations.

Thank you for "consecrating yourselves to the Lord, for tomorrow He will do wonders among you". Joshua 3:5

The feast day for the Mystical Rose is celebrated annually on July 13th.

Why World Mission Sunday Matters

World Mission Sunday, observed on October 20th this year, is not just another Sunday; it is a powerful reminder of our call to be missionaries. The collection taken up on this day is unique as it is mandated by the Code of Canon Law and is essential for the survival and growth of the Church in mission territories.

These funds support the pastoral and evangelizing work of the Church, including building churches, providing healthcare and education, and training future priests and religious. In places where resources are scarce, your generosity makes a profound difference. As we reflect on the theme "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," let us remember that our participation and support help invite countless souls to the feast of God's love.

Visit the Ursuline Sisters’ Rosary Walk and Shrine Walk

The Rosary Walk on the grounds of the Ursuline Sisters of Mount Saint Joseph offers visitors a chance to express their spirituality among the beauty and splendor of the “holy ground” at Maple Mount (8001 Cummings Road, 12 miles west of Owensboro, Ky., on Hwy. 56). The Rosary Walk takes people on a journey as far as they are willing to let the Holy Spirit guide them, without leaving the peaceful confines of the Mount. It is located on the front of the grounds (northwest corner) and includes the Christ the King statue. Visitors can use their cell phones to reach this webpage and listen to an audiotape of the rosary (recorded by Sister Elaine Burke, OSU) to accompany their walk: <https://ursulinesmsj.org/rosary-shrine-walk/> Or visitors can stroll to see the inspiring shrines on the grounds of the Motherhouse. They can visit this webpage to find a list of the shrines and to hear a recording about them (recorded by Sister Nancy Murphy, OSU): <https://ursulinesmsj.org/shrine-meditation-walk/> People can also listen to these recordings on their computers. No appointment is necessary to see the Rosary Walk or the shrines. There are also new sidewalk walks on the west side of campus available for anyone to use.
